To Whom It May Concern:

I heartily recommend Marvin Jeter for any administrative position in education, as well as any appointment to teach psychology. While serving as a school administrator in Hinds, Madison, and Forest Counties, Dr. Jeter taught as an adjunct instructor in the Department of Psychology here at the Rankin and Jackson-ATC Campuses of Hinds Community College for approximately six years. As the academic dean, I observed his work in and outside of the classroom, and I have known Dr. Jeter as a student and friend for thirty-one years.

I know him to be intelligent, organized, enthusiastic, industrious, creative, and thorough in teaching his classes. As an instructor, he is thoughtful and consistently fair in dealing with his students and colleagues. Furthermore, I found him to be responsible and dependable in all his duties to the College.

Since earning his Ph. D. in Education Administration in 2004, Dr. Jeter has held impressive administrative positions in Mississippi, Arkansas, and Oklahoma. The experience gained has strengthened his management skills. I believe that Marvin is a fine leader in education and will be boon to any organization.

Sincerely,

Gary M. Fox
